U.S.C. §1332 and is one that may be removed to this Court by defendant J.C. PENNEY CORPORATION, INC. pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441 (b). It is a civil action between citizens of different states and the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

Defendant J.C. Penney is informed and believes that plaintiffs, LOUELLA BOREN and LEROY BOREN, were at the time of filing of this action and still are residents of Alameda County, California. Defendant J.C. Penney was at the time of filing the described action and still is a corporation organized, existing and incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Delaware and maintains its principal place of business in the City of Plano, State of Texas.

There is complete diversity of citizenship between plaintiffs and each and all of the defendants herein.

By:

Lisa A. Villasenor

Attorneys for Defendant,

J.C. PENNEY CORPORATION, INC.

I, Lisa A. Villasenor, declare:

be true.

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice before this Court and all of the courts of the State of California. I am an attorney with the law office of Manning & Marder, Kass, Ellrod, Ramirez LLP, the attorneys for defendant J.C. PENNEY CORPORATION, INC. in this knowledge, except as to those matters stated on information and belief, as to which I believe them to action. If called upon to do so, I could and would testify to the following from my personal

- 2. Based on the face page of the complaint, I am informed and believe and thereon allege that on May 30, 2007, this action was commenced in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Alameda as Case Number RG007328348. Attached hereto as Exhibit "A" is a copy of the Summons and Complaint that were purportedly delivered via Federal Express on the defendant's Texas agent for service, on June 12, 2007. A copy of the "Service of Process Transmittal," "transmittal letter of plaintiffs' counsel" and "Notice of Acknowledgement and Receipt" are attached collectively as Exhibit "B."
- 3. The Complaint, at paragraphs 1 and 2, states that the plaintiffs were residents of the County of Alameda at the time of this incident, thus making them citizens of the State of California. Upon information and belief, J.C. Penney Corporation, Inc. is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in the State of Texas.
- 4. The plaintiffs' lawsuit asserts two causes of action against the defendant, for Negligence and Loss of Consortium. Attached as Exhibit "C" is a true and correct copy of a demand letter sent by plaintiffs' counsel to the defendant's insurance adjuster, offering to settle Mrs. Boren's claim for $500,000. In the demand letter, the plaintiff is described to have medical bills are in excess of $18,000. The injuries suffered by Mrs. Boren allegedly include a fractured left foot, impingement and torn rotator cuff of the left shoulder and spondylolisthesis of the lumbar spine. Mrs. Boren is allegedly experiencing "significant pain" and may require shoulder surgery that would cost in "excess of $20,000." The plaintiffs' livelihood as house cleaners has allegedly been impacted as has Mrs. Boren's ability to engage in normal activities. In light of these allegations, it that the amount in controversy exceeds the $75,000 jurisdictional limit established by 28 U.S.C. section 1332(a).

I declare, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States and State of California, that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this Declaration was executed on July 5, 2007 at San Francisco, California.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

- 1. Negligence Dangerous Condition
- 2. Loss of Consortium

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

BY FAX

Plaintiffs Louella Boren and LeRoy Boren allege as follows:

- Plaintiff Louella Boren is an individual, and was a resident of Alameda County at all times relevant to this complaint.
- Plaintiff LeRoy Boren is an individual, and was a resident of Alameda County at all times relevant to this complaint.
- J.C.Penney Corporation, Inc. is a corporation, organized and existing under the laws of the state of Deleware. Defendants are retail stores with locations throughout the United States, including in California.
 - 4. The injuries complained of by plaintiffs herein were all sustained in Alameda County.
- 5. Plaintiff does not know the true names, capacities, or basis for liability of defendants sued in this action as DOES 1-50, inclusive, and will amend this complaint when the same is ascertained. At all times relevant to this complaint, each defendant, including any defendant fictitiously named, was acting as the agent, servant, employee, partner, or joint venturer of each other defendant in doing the things alleged herein, and is responsible in some manner for the damages claimed herein by the plaintiff.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence - Dangerous Condition

(Against all Defendants)

- 6. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1-5 above, as though fully set forth herein.
- At all times relevant to this complaint, defendants were the owners and operators of the J.C.Penney store in Hayward, California.
- 8. On or about July 23, 2005, the premises of the J.C.Penney store at 340 Southland Mall, in Hayward, California, and all its merchandise, fixtures and display equipment therein were owned and under the control of the defendants, and such defendants were responsible for the maintenance and inspection thereof.
- 9. On or about July 23, 2005, a mattress frame encased in plastic was displayed in an dangerous and unsafe fashion, in that it was sticking out into the aisle, which is intended solely for walking. This condition was exacerbated by its location near a corner, so that a person walking around the corner would immediately come upon this dangerous condition.
- 10. At the above time and place, the mattress frame encased in plastic, and all other nearby merchandise, fixtures and display equipment, were owned, maintained and used by defendants.

 Defendants had a duty to inspect the premises and discover said conditions which were obvious and, upon information and belief, existed for a period of time on and before July 23, 2005. Defendants negligently displayed the plastic-encased mattress frame in an unsafe manner, and further negligently failed to inspect the area, thereby creating a foreseeably dangerous condition. The defendants further negligently failed to warn or otherwise notify the plaintiffs of the dangerous condition and the possibility of harm.
- On or about July 23, 2005, defendants negligently failed to maintain their premises in a reasonably safe condition, thereby leaving it in a dangerous, defective and unsafe state. Defendants thereby exposed plaintiffs to a dangerous and harmful condition that could cause injury.

- 12. On or about July 23, 2005, plaintiffs entered the J.C. Penney in Hayward, California to shop at the store. Shortly after plaintiff Louella Boren turned a corner, her right foot became caught in plastic sheeting material attached to and on the floor around a large mattress frame that was sticking out into the walkway. She fell hard onto her knees, slid, and then fell completely onto the ground, landing on her stomach, causing severe injury.
- As a proximate result of the aforesaid dangerous condition and negligence of the defendants, and each of them, plaintiff Louella Boren was injured in her health, strength and activity, sustaining bodily injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional distress, wage loss, hospital and medical expenses, loss of earning capacity, and other damages according to proof.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Loss of Consortium

(Against all Defendants)

- 14. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1-13 above, as though fully set forth herein.
- 15. On July 23, 2005, and up to and including the present date, plaintiff Louella Boren was and is legally married to and residing with plaintiff LeRoy Boren.
- By reason of the aforesaid negligent and careless conduct of defendants, plaintiff LeRoy 16. Boren has been deprived of the services of his spouse, Louella Boren, and has been further denied her care, assistance, comfort and society, and his care, comfort and society have been impaired. Plaintiff LeRoy Boren is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that such impairment will be permanent, to his general damage in an amount according to proof.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs prays for judgment against defendants, and each of them, as follows:

- 1. For general damages;
- 2. For medical and related expenses according to proof;
- 3. For special damages;
- For costs of suit herein; 4.
- 5. For interest on all sums owed at the maximum legal rate;
- 6. For attorneys' fees according to law; and

7. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

Re:

Your File No. 6840096311

Policy No.:

RMGL 600-76-90

Claimant:

Louella Boren

Dear Mr. Frost:

This letter is written pursuant to Evidence Code § 1152, in an effort to settle the Borens' claims against JCPenney.

On July 23, 2005, the Borens were shopping at the Hayward, California JCPenney store. Mrs. Boren turned a corner and her right foot became caught in plastic sheeting material attached to and on the floor around a large bed frame that was sticking out into the walkway. She fell hard onto her knees, slid, and then fell completely onto the ground, landing on her stomach. Mrs. Boren's husband and another shopper witnessed the accident.

As a retail business, JCPenney had a duty to keep its premises safe and free of hazards. McKenny v. Quality Foods, Inc. (1957) 156 Cal.App.2d 349, 353. JCPenney's placement of a bed frame with plastic sheeting material sticking out into the walkway was negligent and created a dangerous tripping hazard. The dangerousness of this condition was heightened by the fact that the obstructed walkway would have not have become apparent until a shopper turning the corner was already upon it. Should this matter proceed to litigation, a jury will hold JCPenney liable for the serious injuries and associated damages Mrs. Boren sustained in this accident.

Mrs. Boren's entire body was in pain after the accident. In particular, she experienced sharp pain in her neck, shoulders, lower back, and left leg and left foot. She was also covered with bruises from the fall, including bruises on her elbows, forearms, knees, and ankles. Mrs. Boren received initial emergency room treatment at St. Rose Hospital, where physicians noted her many contusions, and diagnosed her with a back sprain. (Records from St. Rose Hospital are attached hereto as Exhibit 1).

In the week after the accident, the pain in Mrs. Boren's left leg and foot became so severe that she was unable to put any pressure on her left foot at all, which precluded walking or performing any of her ordinary daily activities. Mrs. Boren was forced to seek further emergency treatment from from St. Louise Hospital. The physicians at St. Louise Hospital diagnosed Mrs. Boren with sciatica, and prescribed vicodin and valium. (Records from St. Louise Hospital are attached hereto as Exhibit 2).

Mrs. Boren has received treatment associated with this accident from her regular physician, Dr. Gloria Carreon, on numerous occasions between August 1, 2005 and the present. Dr. Carreon initially diagnosed Mrs. Boren with a foot sprain, ankle sprain, back sprain, sciatica, and hip and leg pain. Mrs. Boren continued experiencing severe low back pain radiating down her left leg. A September 2005

- 2 - September 22, 2006

MRI revealed anterior spondylolisthesis of L4 on L5 – Mrs. Boren's back had literally shifted. Dr. Carreon's records show that Mrs. Boren was active, and without significant back or other health issues prior to the July 23, 2005, accident. (Records from Dr. Carreon are attached hereto as Exhibit 3).

From August 1, 2005, through July 24, 2006, Mrs. Boren received treatment from podiatrist Daniel Gomes for her left foot injuries sustained in the July 23, 2005, accident. Dr. Gomes diagnosed Mrs. Boren with a fracture of o.s. navicular in her left foot, accompanied by severe swelling. Mrs. Boren was required to wear a cast on her left foot for nearly six weeks, to allow healing. Mrs. Boren's mobility was extremely limited during this time period, given her limited ability to walk and her physician's instructions to keep her foot elevated and rest. Mrs. Boren's husband and daughter, Connie Davenport, cared for her during this time period. Mrs. Boren is entitled to recover the reasonable value of gratuitously furnished home nursing services provided by her relatives. Rodriguez v. McDonnel Douglas Corp. (1978) 87 Cal.App.3d 626. The prevailing market rate for nursing/attendance services provided by Mr. Boren during this period is estimated at $1800.00. Although her left foot pain has improved, Mrs. Boren still experiences tingling/burning sensations in her foot and substantial continuing pain in her left leg. (Records from Dr. Gomes are attached hereto as Exhibit 4).

Dr. Raghu Katragadda treated Mrs. Boren for the chronic back pain radiating into her lower extremities. Dr. Katragadda diagnosed Mrs. Boren with left shoulder pain, cervical radiculopathy, cervical radiculitis, and lumbar pain. In early 2006, Dr. Katragadda noted that Mrs. Boren's shoulder injury rendered her unable to move/raise her shoulder, and unable to perform ordinary daily activities. (Records of Dr. Katragadda are attached as Exhibit 5).

Beginning in December 2005 and continuing to the present, Mrs. Boren has received medical treatment from Dr. Jan Henstorf. According to Dr. Henstorf's notes, in December 2006 Mrs. Boren was still experiencing neck pain, shoulder pain, low back pain radiating into the legs, and a burning sensation in her feet. In early 2006, Dr. Henstorf diagnosed Mrs. Boren with impingement syndrome in her left shoulder. Mrs. Boren has received several cortisone shots for the pain in her shoulder/back, but these have provided only limited and temporary pain relief. As of July 19, 2006, Dr. Henstorf noted that Mrs. Boren's pain in her left shoulder area was still significant, with limited range of motion, increased pain with abduction and forward flexion, and tenderness in the area of the acromioclamicular joint. (Records from Dr. Henstorf are attached hereto as Exhibit 6).

Finally, Mrs. Boren has had 24 session of physical therapy with Prefer Rehab Physical Therapy, Inc., from 8/2-8/25/05, and more recently, from 7/7/06-7/26/06. In the most recent report from July 26, 2006, the therapist noted continuing soft tissue irritation associated with the July 23, 2005 accident. He also noted that although Mrs. Boren's pain had improved somewhat with therapy, she was still experiencing sharp pain in her left shoulder radiating to the left side of her neck, her left shoulder was noticeably elevated, and she was experiencing difficulty with overhead movements or performing any household activities. (Records from Prefer Rehab Physical Therapy, Inc. are attached hereto as Exhibit 7).

Mrs. Boren's special medicals for treatment associated with the July 23, 2006, accident are in excess of $18,000. Documentation of the costs associated with Mrs. Boren's care to date, to the extent not already included along with medical records produced herewith, are identified in the Medicare document attached hereto as Exhibit 8. Note that this document does not reflect treatment for the last several months. In particular, within the last several weeks an MRI revealed a torn rotator cuff in Mrs.

-3 - September 22, 2006

Boren's shoulder. Mrs. Boren is presently undergoing a new round of physical therapy for her shoulder. Because the cortisone shots and further physical therapy have had only limited effectiveness in managing Mrs. Boren's chronic pain, it now appears that surgery will be necessary, at an estimated cost in excess of $20,000. After such surgery, further physical therapy and continuing medical care will also be necessary. Finally, Mrs. Boren's out of pocket costs for prescription co-pays and necessary medical supplies are in excess of $500.00, as partially set forth in the documents attached hereto as Exhibit 9.

Prior to this accident, Mrs. Boren and her husband cleaned houses together for approximately 25-30 hrs/week, and received income of approximately $1700-1800/month from that work. They now earn only approximately $720-$960/month for that work, and this loss is continuing. Mrs. Boren attempted to resume her housecleaning after the accident, but had great difficulty doing so. Because of the pain in her back, shoulder, and legs, her inability to reach or lift, and her inability to stand for even moderate periods of time, Mrs. Boren is unable to perform many of the tasks she previously performed when cleaning houses, such as mopping, cleaning bathtubs, or cleaning anything above her shoulder. Because they worked as a team cleaning homes, Mr. Boren has also had to greatly reduce his hours, and/or obtain additional outside assistance from Connie Davenport or others to complete cleaning projects. The house cleaning projects are paid at a flat rate per home. As Mr. Boren has been forced to take over more housecleaning tasks that Mrs. Boren previously performed, the Borens now work at a slower pace, so that they earn both less per hour and less money in total. Prior to the accident, Mrs. Boren also used to babysit her young grandchildren. Because of her current physical limitations, including the fact that she can no longer lift her grandchildren, it is no longer safe for her to babysit.

Because of the accident, Mrs. Boren's participation in many of the activities she previously enjoyed is either impossible or greatly reduced. Mrs. Boren is deaf. Prior to the accident, she greatly enjoyed participating in regularly scheduled events with a deaf senior citizens' organization, including camping, card and board games, bocce, golf bola, swimming, and bowling. These events are sometimes held in different cities. Because of Mrs. Boren's pain, the great amount of time she has been forced to spend receiving medical treatment, and her inability to sit, stand or walk for extended periods, the Borens' participation in these activities, even the local activities, has been sharply curtailed. By way of further example, Mrs. Boren used to comfortably walk up to 3-4 miles/day. She can no longer do so. She also used to enjoy shopping, but now can only shop for a maximum of 30 minutes without experiencing pain/discomfort. Because she cannot reach, lift objects, or sit or stand for even moderate lengths of time, Mrs. Boren can also no longer perform many household chores that she used to perform, such as cooking and cleaning. Connie Davenport and/or Mr. Boren have been forced to handle the cooking, cleaning and home care activities previously taken care of by Mrs. Boren. Unfortunately, no relief is in sight. If Mrs. Boren is forced to undergo surgery on her shoulder, as is anticipated, she will be unable to lift the affected arm/shoulder for six months thereafter. Thus, Mrs. Boren's physical limitations will certainly continue for some time, and her prognosis after surgery is unknown.

Although over a year has passed since the accident, Mrs. Boren continues to experience significant pain from her injuries, including in particular pain in her left shoulder, legs, and lower back. Nevertheless, Mrs. Boren wants to move on with her life and will agree to settlement of all claims against JCPenney for $500,000. This figure is based on Mrs. Boren's medical bills and wage loss, as well as her past and future pain and suffering. California allows an injured party to recover damages for future pain and suffering. Lopez v. Morrison (1944) 23 Cal.2d 600, 611. And, "a plaintiff may recover not only for physical pain and suffering but for fright, nervousness, grief, anxiety, embarrassment, apprehension, terror, or ordeal." Carpelouto v. Kaiser Foundation Hospitals (1972) 7 Cal.3d 889, 892. We believe this is a fair pre-litigation settlement offer for Mrs. Boren's claims.

The Borens have been married for 36 years. The severity of Mrs. Boren's injuries seriously impacted Mr. Boren as well, in that his wife became unable to engage in routine household activities or contribute to the family's financial and moral support. Mr. Boren has an independent claim against JCPenny for loss of consortium, based on the loss of support, services, love, companionship, society, affection, intimacy, and solace he suffered when his wife was injured. Rodriguez v. Bethlehem Steel Corp. (1974) 12 Cal.3d 382. Mr. Boren will agree to settlement of his claim against JCPenney for $60,000.

I look forward to discussing these offers with you and reaching amicable settlements. Please respond to this offer within two weeks of the date of this letter.

Very Truly Yours,
